

Evaluation Report

November 10-14, 2008
International Gaming Institute
Las Vegas

Student's Name:

Teacher's Name: Craig Greene

Speaker Performance:

	Strongly Agree	Agree	Neutral	Disagree	Notes:
Has a good knowledge of the subject	20	1
Presentation skills were engaging	17	4
Made good points that were well developed and clearly supported	18	3
Came prepared for the presentation	17	4
Developed a rapport with the audience	17	4
Audio/Visual was clear and easy to see/hear	16	5
I would recommend this speaker to a colleague	16	3	2

Class rating (provided me with information I can use):

Spotting the Operational Fraudster (Day 5 - session 2)	15	5	1
--	----	---	---	--

Evaluation Report

November 10-14, 2008
International Gaming Institute
Las Vegas

Page 2 of 2

---

Student Comments (all included)

“Seemed like he didn’t have enough time to go over all of his material, but was very knowledgeable. It is definitely a subject I would like to know more about.”

“He was rushed but was able to provide good examples to support different fraudulent activities.”

“Very engaging & entertaining. Presentation was a lot of good information & examples.”

“Polished speaker. Good info delivered in a clear manner.”

“Good clear presentation.”

“I wish we would have had another session with Mr. Greene. His presentation was great.”

“I’m a member of ACFE and I really appreciate your acknowledgment of the dangers fraudsters present. Craig did a great job describing in a short time, the profiles and tendencies found in common frauds.”

“Good presentation and subject matter.”

“Strong presenter and good knowledge. I missed a big part of his session.”

“Could have used more time.”

“Good information. Reaffirms the point employee theft is on the rise.”

“Very good. Fast info. Need more time.”

“Fantastic presentation, both material & presenter.”

---